Description

A hostel located in the heart of Carcassonne ! At few minutes from the City of Carcassonne, the Canal du Midi, the trains station and the airport. This former 17th century convent has preserved its architecture and all the authenticity of the buildings of the period with its cloister, arcades and vaults. The hostel can accommodate 70 people in a double room, quadruple room and dormitories. In addition, a 35-seat seminar room can accommodate groups and companies in a private space Around the Bar or in the cloister sun, it will be pleasant for you to share our homemade Tapas created by our Chef, to taste local wines from our Great Cellar or even to admire the sunset, on the bell tower of the church, from the Rooftop a cocktail in hand.

This is a detailed street map of Carcassonne, France, showing the Canal du Midi and the Garonne river. The map includes numerous street names, landmarks like the Capitainerie and the Mairie, and a scale bar indicating 100m. The map is oriented with North at the top.
