Description

Located outside of the village, in a peaceful and sunny valley. The origins of the chapel seem to date from the 6th c., when, according to the legend, a shepherdess gave some water from the spring to her sick child who cured miraculously ! Chapels were built and a pilgrimage took place. The actual chapel dates from the 12th c. and has been restored during the 15th & 16th c. Inside there is a lot of marble, masses are held everyday. Behind the chapel there are plane trees, the stream, cliffs..it is an ideal place for hiking, climbing, picnics...
