Description

Situated on the right bank of the river Aude, the Medieval Citadel, listed a UNESCO World Heritage site, is a medieval architectural ensemble unique in Europe both for its size and for its excellent state of preservation. Its history has been marked by 2000 years of conquests and by the legacy of Catharism and the Crusades. Accessible both day and night, from the Narbonne and Aude gateways, much of the citadel can be visited for free and without a guide.

This map shows the Fontgrande area in France. The river l'Aude flows through the center. Key locations include la Trivalle, les Moulins du Roi, la Cité, and Fontgrande. The map also shows Cité Oza and Villa Saint-François. A scale bar indicates 100m, and a compass rose is present in the top left corner.
