Type : Cultural attractions

Description

For groups and by reservation. Walk around Montolieu, a village of books and the arts, with a guide from the tourist office. Find out about the history of the site whose remains date back to the 13th and 14th centuries, and even to the Gallo-Roman era. Take a stroll through this market town, home to 17 second-hand booksellers and a host of artists... A map of the village is available from the tourist office.
