Description

A place full of history and tradition, Château Fabas is an unmissable reference in the Minervois region. An old, fortified farmhouse, formerly a religious and agricultural entity grouped around a small church, it is on this field with its many Mediterranean scents that Yann and Loïc Augustin meticulously produce intense, complex and expressive wines. They bear the mark of this natural, sincere and preserved land that witnessed their birth and growth. On this property, the Augustin family reveals the exceptional richness offered by the vines and land, on the quest for elegance and power, with the aim of achieving a perfect balance. The estate reserves you its very best welcome and will let you taste and discover these generous wines.
