Description

The Sentenac family has been working at Domaine de La Roque for five generations. Here, they have been perpetuating the values of traditional viticulture while respecting the principles of sustainable agriculture. White, red and rosé wines are mainly produced under the Pays d'Oc PGI (formerly Vin de Pays d'Oc) and the Cité Carcassonne PGI. The entire estate extends over 33 hectares along the banks of the River Aude on a mainly clay/limestone terroir. Domaine de La Roque wines can be tasted at the 'Les Vignes de Bacchus' winery on the banks of the Canal du Midi in Trèbes (open daily from March to October, 9.00 am to midnight).
